Rachael Ray

has hit the big time in a big way. She's famous as an extremely successful chef, cookbook writer, spokeswoman, and media personality. Her numerous TV shows have been broadcast in more than 10 countries around the world including the US, Australia, Canada, Brazil, and Turkey. In addition, she has written over 20 cookbooks that have sold more than 1 million copies. Since 2006, she has given a great deal of time and energy to improving unhealthy diets for kids in the US.

Her rise to fame and fortune was swift. She began her career working in her parents' restaurants, where it was easy to earn a few dollars. In 1995, with no formal chef training, she landed her first professional job at Macy's Marketplace candy counter in New York City. After two years there, she moved back home to manage restaurants.

In 1998, she came up with the idea of teaching people how to make plenty of tasty, nutritious meals using a few simple supermarket ingredients in 30 minutes or less. Even though she had hardly any TV experience, she had plenty of enthusiasm, and she found herself doing
