

Tuesday at 10:00

English 8

reach out, hang out, a tad, peter out, get a feel for, faux pas, be on par with, awkward, irresistible, misconception, miss out on, considerable, apt, silly, innovation, savvy, deviate, be open to, hang-up, stick to

It takes a _____ amount of time to fly to New Zealand.

I love chocolate. I find it _____.

Asking a woman her weight is a _____.

My interest in baseball _____ because I can't go to the stadium.

I have a _____ about spiders. They give me the creeps.

I _____ to an old elementary school friend because I was feeling nostalgic.

It is important to _____ the plan and not _____ from it.

You are _____ to make mistakes if you don't prepare.

My friend is a _____ investor. He has made a lot of money on the stock market.

It took me a while to _____ online teaching but I can do it now.

Some people say believing in UFOs is _____ but I _____ the idea of extraterrestrial life.

My friend and I _____ at Starbucks and chat.

Teams is a useful _____ for online teaching.

I arrived late to the party and _____ the food.

I don't mind if people are _____ late but I won't wait more than 20 minutes.

It is _____ trying to borrow money from classmates.

Tuesday at 10:00.

English 8

I don't think online classes _____ classroom instruction.

It is a _____ that deserts are lifeless. Many plants and animals live there.

Pick 5 and write sentences to show me you understand their meaning.

weirdo

get out of hand

fed up with leery of prudent

sloppy

Pick 5 and answer them in 2 to 3 sentences.

When have you chosen to err on the side of caution?

When has one of your hunches been correct?

When have you had to cut someone some slack?

Are online classes worth it?

What is a friend?

Tuesday at 10:00

English 8

How has your sense of style changed since high school?

When have you been told not to push your luck?