

Wednesday at 10:00

News English 12

be fit for, unconditionally, revise, all sorts of, marginally, defer, end up, socialize, setback, asset, slip through someone's fingers, alternative, resent, impartial, bounce back, hurdle, goof off, apparently, preferential, prospective

My friends _____ it when I _____ and still get A pluses.

It's hard to _____ when you try very hard but still fail.

I don't like Cass but I think Kloud is _____ better.

A university education is a valuable _____. Therefore, don't let the opportunity _____ just because four years seems like a long time.

The government _____ its Covid-19 warnings when it gets new information.

_____ job seekers face many _____ because of the bad job market.

I love _____ sweet things, like cake and ice cream.

The Covid-19 situation is _____ getting better because the government lowered the threat level.

It is foolish to believe people _____.

My boss gives _____ treatment to workers who laugh at his stupid jokes. It would be better if he were _____.

This hotel is so luxurious it _____ a king.

If this plan has too many problems, find an _____ one.

Not getting a scholarship was a _____ because I didn't have enough money to pay my tuition.

Many students have decided to _____ graduation because the job market is bad.

Wednesday at 10:00

News English 12

I wasn't sure if I would go to the party but I _____ going because I hadn't _____ with my friends in a long time.

Pick 5 and use them in sentences to show me you understand their meaning.

get the hang of

jump at the chance

let loose

perk

incentive

persist affect

Pick 5 and answer them in 2 to 3 sentences.

Why didn't you take a gap year this year?

What would you like to bring to the attention of President Moon?

When have you experienced a slap in the face?

Are you satisfied with the status quo?

Wednesday at 10:00

News English 12

What effect will online teaching have on Korean education?

Who would you like to meet for lunch: Elizabeth Olshanetsky (Gap Year), Cho Jung-hun (Monthly Income), or Ma Yeong-shin's mother (Moms)?