

(is employed)

News Eng. (11)

indicate, a ray of hope, trend, scrap, end up, pledges, initiative, step in, subsidies, perception, guidelines, status quo, tentative, hit one's stride, the big picture, explicit, frustrating, stance, restrict, propensity

① I don't believe politicians' pledges because they have a propensity to say anything in order to get elected.

② It took several months to get used to my job but now I have hit my stride.

③ It is so frustrating to study so hard and still fail.

4 The promise of vaccines for COVID-19 offers a ray of hope that things will return to normal in 2021.

5 Stop worrying about trivial things and keep in mind the big picture.

6 Because of the pandemic, all my vacation plans are tentative.

7 The trend for electric cars is gaining momentum. Some countries even plan to restrict the production of fossil fuel-burning cars in the near future. Scrap

8 I think the government should step in and provide subsidies for companies to produce green energy.

9 I think the government will restrict the number of people who can gather in one place because the rising number of COVID-19 cases indicates the disease is not yet under control.

10 I am satisfied with the status quo, so my stance is I don't want things to change too much.

11 I don't know why he is unsure what to do. I gave him explicit instructions.

12 If you want things to change, take the initiative and be the agent of change.

13 I don't want to end up getting COVID-19, so I follow the government's guidelines very carefully.

4 People's perception of smoking has changed. Nobody defends smoking these days.

Answer 10 of the following questions in two or three sentences.

When have you felt overwhelmed at Mokwon?

What would you like to excel at?

What has been a big deal for you?

Which reading taught you the most?

What is your most valuable asset?

What is going to be your priority in 2021?

What problem does the government need to tackle immediately?

What is one benefit of the falling birthrate?

How has COVID-19 affected your daily routine?

What bothers you?

What can't you wait to do this winter vacation?