

Eng. Com.

Use the vocabulary correctly to fill in the blanks.

know for a fact, have a hunch, burn out, bad form, chances are, impulsive, impact, in case, do the trick, hang out with, overwhelm, strategy, despite, persistent, nevertheless, chill out, nod off, considering that

- 1 Despite having two jobs, he never seems to have any money.
- 2 The government must have a strategy for youth employment.
- 3 Be careful who you hang out with since friends have a big impact on your life.
- 4 I know for a fact our exam is on Thursday.
- 5 He speaks Japanese very well, considering that he started studying it last semester.
- 6 It is bad form for young people to smoke in front of older people.
- 7 Whenever I'm tired, a twenty-minute nap does the trick.
- 8 If you want to succeed, you must be persistent.
- 9 I often nod off after lunch during the summer.
- 10 I have a hunch he didn't study because he got a very bad grade on the exam.
- 11 Seoul is densely populated. Nevertheless, I want to live there.
- 12 After I finish my exams, I usually feel burned out.
- 13 My friend is impulsive; therefore, I usually advise him to be more prudent.
- 14 After I come home from school, I usually chill out by listening to music.
- 15 I have an extra mask in my bag in case the one I'm wearing breaks.

Eng. (2)

When a teacher writes something on the blackboard, chances are it will be on the exam.

Many hospitals around the world have been overwhelmed by COVID patients.

Answer the questions in 2 to 3 sentences.

What is inappropriate behavior at the dinner table?

Ever since I entered Mokwon University

What is the greatest advantage of having a four-year university degree?

What will you feel like doing after your exams are over?

President Moon should