

inconsiderate, impulsive, outrageous, get one's foot in the door, mellow, provoke, frivolous, like there's no tomorrow, splurge, envision, tend, advocate, tighten one's belt, not surprisingly, opt

I _____ to spend too much on eating out. I think I need to _____ and cook at home.

I think it is _____ to arrive late at a meeting.

It's hard to _____ these days because there are so many young people looking for work.

My friend _____ the YOLO lifestyle. He lives _____.

I think spending money on pet clothes is _____.

My friend is _____, so he often buys things he doesn't need.

I _____ not to go to clubs because I prefer a _____ atmosphere.

I can _____ a future when we no longer use cash.

My friend says _____ things in order to _____ arguments.

_____, many people _____ on gift giving and dining out at this time of year.

Write sentences using:

who

whom whose which

as if the way

so ... that so few fed up with fundamentally

Answer the questions in detail.

Do you cope with change well?

What kind of people do you gravitate to?

What is a central pillar in your life?

What are you leery of?

When have you experienced remorse?

Do you worry about entering the rat race?

In high school, my friends and I would

When I have some extra money, I will Overall, my life is

How has this class helped you?